Hanna

A feminine piece of pure and elegant lines which invites you to nestle down cosily yet which is also cordially open to others. Welcoming, comfortable and sensual; Hanna is perfect for decorating work spaces, places to receive the visits of collaborators and customers... or spaces to be lived in.

Whether inside our homes or out, this chair loves to discover new places and will always welcome you with its arms wide open. Hanna adapts to any atmosphere and context thanks to its different variations.

Its timeless design combines character and harmony with different materials, offering up to five different options of leg type. Aluminium, steel or wood create a versatile ensemble visible in the two available heights that can turn Hanna into an elegant armchair.

Francesc Rifé

His career as an interior and industrial designer begins during the period of his academic training through various collaborations with architecture and design studios. He also assumes personal projects.

In 1994 he founded his own studio in Barcelona and currently leads a team of professionals trained in various fields of design. His projects, national and international, range from interior to industrial design in the commercial and private sectors. The studio also has considerable experience in graphic design projects, photography and art direction. Its design philosophy is based on the spatial and geometric proportion.

Throughout his career Rifé has received many prizes in the field of design, like ContractWorld Awards, ICFF Editors Awards, Ascer Prizes, and FAD Awards. Also, he has been nominated for the National Design Awards and the Delta Awards for Industrial Design. His work has been widely reported in the press and specialized publications and books nationally and internationally. Also, several books that collect his most outstanding works have been published. Currently he combines teaching with an active role in workshops, meetings, and conferences throughout the Spanish territory and internationally.
